Dear Mr. Hollander:

We received your letter dated May 1, 2017. However, we are unable to take action on your concerns at this time.

This office handles complaints about immigration judge misconduct. Your message does not specifically allege that an immigration judge has engaged in misconduct, and following a complete review of your concerns, we have determined that no judicial misconduct occurred. Accordingly, this matter is considered closed.

Sincerely,

Conduct and Professionalism Unit
Office of the Chief Immigration Judge
